Re: United States v. Timothy Anderson, Crim. No. 09-284 (AET)

Dear Judge Thompson,

Please accept this letter as a status update in the case of Timothy Anderson.

Mr. Anderson appeared before the Court on April 29, 2016; he pleaded not guilty to three counts of violating conditions of his supervised release and his supervision was continued. The violation hearing was postponed because one of Mr. Anderson's violations (Violation # 1) was based on a New Jersey charge that was not yet resolved. That case is still not resolved but has been remanded to Neptune City Municipal Court.

Counsel asks that Mr. Anderson's final revocation hearing be postponed an additional 60 days to await resolution of his New Jersey case. Counsel consulted with U.S.P.O. Carolyn Johnson and A.U.S.A. Joseph Gribko, who both agree to postpone the case.

Sincerely,

/s Alison Brill
